State Items Briefly Told

Danville.—The Danville News, an afternoon paper served by the United Press suspended publication here.

Fredericksburg.—The annual conference of Virginia Daughters of American Revolution will be held in Fredericksburg this week, with many prominent officials in attendance.

Hampton.—George Watts, a white man, was convicted of committing an attack upon a small white girl by a jury in the Circuit Court of Elizabeth City county, and given twenty years in the penitentiary.

Fredericksburg.—Plans are in the making for extensive additions and improvements to the Princess Anne Hotel here to be undertaken in the next few weeks and pushed forward to completion by next March.

Newport News.—A woman's Democratic Club was organized here with Mrs. Edwin Phillips as president. The club will attempt to get a record vote out to the polls for the November election.

Cartersville.—Elnora, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Anderson, was accidentally shot by a colored boy who was trying to kill a snake, and the child died of her injuries.

Danville.—Dr. Gena Crews, the first Danville woman to practice medicine here, has returned to Danville from Washington, where she was elected vice-president of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic Association at its annual meeting in that city.

Lynchburg.—A petition is being circulated here addressed to the Federal Congress asking for a modification of the Volstead law so as to make legal certain beers sold, but it only one petition refers only to the national law and not to the State law.

Roanoke.—The construction of ten mountain type passenger engines at the Roanoke shops of the Norfolk and Western Railway has been authorized, it was announced from the office of L. F. Needles, president of the company.

Boydton.—The case of the Commonwealth against Louis Cumbia for the murder of Constable Leon Smith, of South Hill, was concluded and the defendant was found guilt by a Mecklenburg jury and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

South Boston.—Walton Cole, son of Mrs. Jennie Cole, of Charlotte Court House, was brought to the Halcyon Hospital here for an operation in which his right leg was amputated. Cole was injured in a saw mill accident in which his leg was so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary in order to save his life.

Winchester.—Winchester Memorial Hospital continues on the list of standardized Virginia hospitals that have met and maintained all the requirements of the American College of Surgeons. The local hospital, which has an excess of fifty beds, has been on the college's honor list for several years.

Newport News.—After having had his right foot and leg caught in the mechanism of a peanut picking machine which he was operating on the farm of O. J. Cockes, of Elberon, in Surry county, where he was employed, a man named Wright was brought to this city and taken to a hospital in an effort to save his limbs if not his life.

Ashland.—Hanover county has been assigned 247 memorial coins for the further sale of the souvenirs in order to carry out the plans of the Stone Mountain Memorial Association. The former sale of coins in Hanover county was entirely successful and it is thought that many of those who did not share in the former sale will aid in the additional distribution.

Richmond.—Three new members will be present in the State Senate this year and as the Democratic candidates are virtually assured of election, the new faces appearing at the next General Assembly will be: Joseph C. Denny, of White Post, Clarke county, succeeding Harry F. Byrd, representing the counties of Clarke, Frederick and Shenandoah and the city of Winchester. S. R. Crockett, of Wytheville, succeeding the late John H. Crockett as representative from Wythe, Pulaski, Giles and Bland counties; E. L. Kendig, of Victoria, will succeed Louis S. Epes, now made by the Southwestern Virginia, Inc. Committees were appointed and the work will begin at once.

Wytheville.—E. R. Worrell, of Richmond, supervisor of rural schools for Virginia, spent Monday in Wythe county, and Tuesday in Bland county, visiting the schools.

PAUL'S ARREST IN JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:18-22:22.

GOLDEN TEXT—"If any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but glorify God on this behalf."—I Peter 4:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Is Brave in Danger.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul and the Jerusalem Mob.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Faces a Mob.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Spirit of the Mob.

I. Paul's Vow (21:18-26).

Upon Paul's arrival at Jerusalem representatives of the church there gave him a most cordial reception. In order that the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. The effort was to remove prejudice. They recognized that Paul, as an apostle would in no way compromise or in any way be broken. Furthermore, this would not compromise his own principles of action, viz., to the Jews he became a Jew, and to the Gentiles, a Gentile; all things to all men in order to gain them for Christ.

II. Paul's Arrest (21:27-40).

How far this act conciliated the Jews we are not told, but it only enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These maddened Jews on the basis of a supposition seized him and dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly intending to put him to death. Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard. The chief captain, not being able to get any information from the howling mob, bound Paul and started for the castle. In order to protect him from the incensed mercy of the mob, the soldiers lifted him upon their shoulders and bore him up the stairs. Paul kept himself under control, and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people. When he addressed him in Greek and quoted his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

III. Paul's Defense (22:1-27).

Paul's chief concern was not his own safety. He used this opportunity to witness unto them of Christ.

1. His Claim for a Rightful Hearing (vv. 1-3).

(1) His birth (v. 3).

He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation.

(2) His education (v. 3).

He was educated under Gamaliel and instructed according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers.

(3) His Zeal (v. 3).

He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His Attitude Toward Jesus (vv. 4-5).

"I persecuted this way unto the death," so that his attitude was one of hatred as was that of the Jews.

3. How His Attitude Was Changed (vv. 6-16).

While on his way to Damascus with authority to bind the Christians at Jerusalem, he was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou me?" When Paul inquired what he was to do, he was told to go to Damascus where he would be told what to do.

4. The Lord Commissioned Him to Go to the Gentiles (17-21).

IV. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).

The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's Earnest Look at the Council (vv. 1-2).

This was a notification of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unfaltering courage.

2. Paul's Stern Rebuke of the Head of the Council (vv. 3).

"God shall smite thee, thou whited wall."

3. Paul's Appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 6-10).

Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees hoping to get their attention, for his preaching had something in common with their belief.

V. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11).

This assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

VI. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 12-22).

More than forty men placed themselves under a curse to abstain from eating and drinking until they had murdered him. God defeated their plan without a miracle.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
